Please share a little of your background to give the city an idea of what committees you would be interested in:

I have lived in Gardiner for many years and over that time have seen our city evolve into a great small city.

While I have no professional background in age related issues (I am a member of AARP), I believe a city should provide services, facilities, recreational areas for all age groups. As our city plans for future development, I believe the needs of older citizens must be considered. I am presently on the Tree Committee and the Gardiner Main Street Streetscape Committee.

Please share a little of your background to give the city an idea of what committees you would be interested in:

I'm interested in making the City of Gardiner a great place to live, work, and play!

I work in state government, helping agencies recruit top talent, through engaging and effective marketing and communications. In this consultant-type role, I provide recommendations to hiring managers on how making improvements can result in a successful outcome. This has also resulted in a deep understanding of the need for digital accessibility and equitable access to government services.

This is the approach I take to many other areas of my life, including what I'd bring as a committee member for the City of Gardiner.

Thank you for your consideration!

Simon West

Please share a little of your background to give the city an idea of what committees you would be interested in: I have been a Gardiner resident for a little over two years. I previously served on the solid waste committee in Winslow prior to moving. I enjoy being a part of the community I live in and working to help achieve the community's goals and best possible outcomes for residents. Aside from the solid waste committee I am interested in representing my district on the city council.
