Please share a little of your background to give the city an idea of what committees you would be interested in:
I have worked in Gardiner off and on since 2005, including as Director of Planning and Development from 2011-2014. I now live in Gardiner and am excited to become a contributing member of the community. I currently serve as Hallowell City Manager and have experience with commercial and residential real estate, municipal government, and business administration. I would also be available to serve on the Board of Assessment Review.

Please share a little of your background to give the city an idea of what committees you would be interested in: Hello - I have been a Gardiner resident for more than 30 years. I retired in 2019 from a long career in nonprofit governance and philanthropy. I served on the appeals board when Brian Rines was mayor. I have more time now for community service. In terms of current vacancies, I would be open to the Board of Appeals, Historic Preservation, Housing, Watershed or Planning Board. I am also interested in the library, recreational and cultural activities in the city. I have strong management, communication, fundraising and budget skills having been the executive director of numerous organizations in Maine. For the past nine years in my role as a grant-maker, I have been working with the immigrant-led organizations in Portland and Lewiston to help ensure positive integration outcomes in these two cities. I currently serve on the board of the Greater Portland Immigrant Welcome Center. My husband, Mark Felder, is the owner of The Sign Shop. Our three children attended Gardiner public schools although as adults none of them settled in Gardiner. Please feel free to contact me for additional information.
