As Mayor, I would like to appoint Rusty Greenleaf to the Ordinance Review Committee today.

Thank you all for looking into this,
Mayor Hart

Noting the Charter, I would see no issue with an email from the Mayor acknowledging Mr. Greenleaf's appointment to the ORC. At the next Council meeting, her appointment can be confirmed.

I hope this helps.

Good morning,

It has come to my attention that there is an Ordinance Review Committee meeting being held on October 28 and at this time, they are minus one for a quorum. We have an interested resident who is on the Council agenda for the October 30 meeting. Would it be possible somehow to appoint him (Rusty Greenleaf) to the ORC early enough to being a voting member for the ORC meeting on October 28? The City Charter states that it is the duty of the Mayor to appoint with the consent and advice from the Council members...I do not see any work around other than having the ORC meeting postponed for a week. Any thoughts and/or suggestions?

Thank you,
