

Displaced from your rental property?

What to Do Next

Have you been asked to vacate your storm-damaged apartment complex whether your unit had damage or not? You may be eligible for disaster assistance.

Apply for disaster assistance in any of the following ways

- Online: DisasterAssistance.gov
- Phone: 800-621-3362
- In-person: Visit a Disaster Recovery Center
- Mobile App: Apply via the FEMA app

After you apply

Give FEMA a copy of the notice to vacate from your landlord. You may provide a copy one of the following ways:

- Inspection: Give to FEMA inspector
- Online: DisasterAssistance.gov
- Mobile App: Apply via the FEMA app
- Mail: FEMA, P.O. Box 10005,
Hyattsville, MD 20782-8055
- In-person: Visit a Disaster Recovery Center
- Fax: 800-827-8112

Write your nine-digit application number on every page.
Only mail copies. Keep your originals.

Submit additional documentation as requested

- Receipts for all costs related to your forced relocation
- Proof of Residency
- Lease Document
- Driver's License
- Utility Bill

Stay in touch with FEMA

After you have vacated your apartment, provide your new address and current phone number(s).

FEMA